Certificate of Recognition

This certifies that

Stacyann Young

was named the recipient of the Global Governance and Transparency Honor (2026), the first honoree named under this designation, in recognition of voluntarily designing and completing a public-records documentation study of 32 public determinations, advisory opinions, and compliance audits, drawn from four document classes and two states and spanning twenty-one years of decisions, each assessed from the source alone and each accompanied by a written record of the basis for that assessment.
